Both came to Manhattan yesterday on a shopping tour and went home carrying some of the smaller pur-chases. They had attended a matinee at one of the theatres and, as their nephew, Wilson L. Bennett, told the police, both had been particularly affected by the play. This strain, to-gether with the fatigue of the journey. kept Mrs Bennett from her usually good night's rest, and she was late in arising to-day.

The old couple were sitting togethe at 10 o'clock this morning when suddenly Mrs. Bennett fell forward to the floor and became unconscious.

ALDERMAN WARS ON SLOT PICTURES

Velten, of Brooklyn, Presents Resolution Declaring Them a Commo Nuisance.

Slot picture machines are obnoxious to Alderman Velten, of Brocklyn. He wants the city authorities to wage a crusade against them.

At the meeting of the Board to-day the Alderman introduced a resolution declaring that the picture slot machines have become a common nuisance. 'Most of the places where these pic-
